

Need your Birth Certificate and can't get it?

If you are under 18 and don't have a permanent place to stay - and your parent, guardian or grandparent won't help you,

A new law can help you.

To get a copy of your Birth Certificate, you have to go to a Vital Records Office with the McKinney-Vento Liaison from your school district or a staff person from one of the programs listed below. Here's what to do:

1. Ask the Liaison in your school district for help.

If you don't know who that is, go to www.sde.ct.gov and type "liaison" in the search box. Or ask at your school, or call Louis Tallarita at the State Department of Education at 860-807-2058.

2. Or, call one of these places and ask for help.

It is best to bring a valid state ID. If you do not have a valid state ID, bring two substitutes. See the complete list of substitute ID on the back of this flyer.

Do you have questions about your legal rights? Go to speakupteens.org or call Attorney Stacey Violante Cote at 860-570-5327 or Attorney Edwin Colon at 203-335-0719

To get a copy of your birth certificate, you and the Homeless Liaison or Shelter Staff person who goes to the Vital Records Office with you must bring identification.

You must both bring a photo ID. This will prove that you are eligible to get a copy of your birth certificate.

Acceptable forms of identification are:

1. A valid state photo ID that includes your date of birth, signature, and an expiration date.

If you do not have a valid state photo ID, copies of two of the following documents can be substituted:

7. Voter registration card
8. Valid government issued trade or professional license

The person who goes to Vital Records with you (McKinney-Vento Liaison or program staff) must submit proof that verifies s/he works as a liaison or at one of the programs.

If you have had your name legally changed by a court decree and your birth certificate does not reflect your new name, you must submit a copy of the court order verifying the legal name change.

If the State or Town Vital Records office doubts the authenticity of a document presented, you may be asked to provide any additional document listed above.
